The Rescue Party Tour is coming to Toronto !!

Thursday, July 23rd. 6:00pm – 9:00pm

Bloor Cinema, 506 Bloor St. West (at Bathurst St)

K9 Rescue Me is pleased to be one of the sponsors of the Michigan based Rescue Party Tour which is having its Canadian premier showing in Toronto on July 23rd.

Tom McPhee's An American Opera: The Greatest Pet Rescue Ever!, is a multi-award winning documentary which chronicles what happened during Hurricane Katrina when pet owners were forced to evacuate without their pets. An American Opera follows the pets, vets, owners, officials, rescuers, and adopters of animals as they try to remedy the situation, revealing that not everyone had the same goal of saving animals.

Tom is taking his Rescue Party Tour to 100 cities in the US and Canada this year, hoping to create a vibrant and original 'friend-raiser' event for the local rescue community. The Rescue Party Tour and K9 Rescue Me welcome all local animal organizations and rescue groups, vets and friends and family to watch and discuss this unique film.

Further information and trailers for the documentary can be found on www.anamericanopera.com Please note: the documentary is appropriate for ages 13 and over. There are disturbing scenes in the documentary but it is part of the story and the contents are well balanced and fascinating.
